December 22, 1922. Went to New Brunswick, N.J., and while there got all back copies of the "New Brunswick Home News," with the exception of six or seven; also arranged a six months subscription to this paper for Mr. Pfeiffer.

In conference with Mrs. Hall. The following are names and addresses of the persons who had been at Point Pleasant on their vacation:-

Catherine Rastell,	13 Senior St.,	New Brunswick,
Ruth Pennington,	231 Codwise Ave.,	" "
Marion Clelland,	186 Fulton St.,	" "
Mrs. Giple,	Evergreen Home at	Bound Brook,
Lillian Vandorn,	New Street,	New Brunswick,
Mrs. Mina Turton,	82 Alton Street,	New Brunswick,
Mrs. Hassel,	18 Remson Avenue,	" "
Mrs. Fulton,	606 Abbott St.,	Highland Park,

Engaged Peter Tumulty to take me to these places. Found no one home in Hassel's house.

I received the following information from Mrs. & Miss Turton:- That the boys had been down at the Camp between July 1st & July 12th, 1922, and that the girls went there from July 12th to July 19th, 1922. That on or about Saturday, July 15th, 1922, some of the boys down there played a prank on the girls by going around the camps at about twelve o'clock midnight and frightening a number of them. Mrs. Hasell frightened the boys away by pretending that she had a revolver, saying, "If you boys don't get away, I am going to shoot, 'where is the gun' " but in reality she didn't have any gun, and it is Miss Turton's belief that this is how the rumor got out that Mr. Hall had a revolver at camp for protection. Mr. Hall was not there at that time as he had gone to New Brunswick to attend services at the Church there and return on Sunday night. When first told of the affair, Mr. Hall was a little bit peeved, but after going into it thoroughly he thought it was one huge joke.

I find that O'Connell of the "New York Herald," and Curley of the "New York Times," are still in and around New Brunswick, and that two State Troopers
